Shipping notes:

- Forgot something? You can cancel the order and do it again by zeroing out the quantities under My Account>Look at My orders. Then just make another. If we've already charged it, it'll say processing.
- Please do not respond to this confirmation email. It's an auto-email thing. UPS will email you the tracking number when they pick up.
- When it leaves Riv HQ the order will be marked 'Shipped' on your MyAccount page.
- Next day, 2day & 3day UPS orders go out same-day if placed before noon, Pacific Time. That's when UPS comes so after that, yup, its gotta be the next day.
- UPS doesn't deliver on Saturdays or Sundays. Or to PO Boxes. If it went USPS domestic, no tracking.
- UPS Ground and US Postal Service orders ship in the order received, usually within 2 business days.
- Of course, if it's been a week and no update, call 800 345 3918. Have your order number ready. Something may have been backordered. Staff email directory!
